

Zepponi & Company Advises on Anderson Valley Vineyard Sale

Craig and Kathryn Walt Hall, owners of WALT and HALL wines announced the purchase of the Anderson Creek vineyard, located in the Anderson Valley AVA. Planted to Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, the vineyard has been a key source for the Anderson Valley wines of the WALT wine portfolio since 2010. Grapes from the vineyard have also gone to other top producers in recent years, including Littorai and Paul Hobbs. WALT expects to continue to sell grapes to other producers in future years.

Zepponi & Company served as the exclusive financial advisor to the seller and negotiated the sale.
